The Dr. Margaret-Ann Armour National Conference Grant

About the Dr. Margaret-Ann Armour National Conference Grant

The Dr. Margaret-Ann Armour National Conference Grant is administered by the NSERC Chairs for Women in Science and Engineering (CWSE) National Network. Applications for funding are accepted three times per year. Applications may be submitted by individual students, professors, administrators or professionals during the intake periods. All received applications will be reviewed for approval.

Intake periods are:

Winter: January 7 to January 15

Summer: May 7 to May 15

Fall: September 7 to September 15

Budget

The funds are intended to be distributed among disciplines and among the five regions assigned to each of the five Chairs across Canada. Grants of up to $2,000 will be considered.

Eligibility Criteria

The objective of the Dr. Margaret-Ann Armour National Conference Grant is to support the organization of non-profit national conferences and workshops* that contribute to the advancement of women in STEM in Canada.

Eligible activities for consideration include those that:

- Aim to enhance women's participation in STEM;
- Promote women's leadership participation;
- Complement student education

*Changes due to COVID-19: The CWSE Network will now accept applications for virtual conferences and workshops as well as in-person meetings due to the on-going COVID-19 situation.

Application Process

Application forms along with a cover letter must be submitted by email to cwsecfsg@gmail.com

Each applicant must submit the Dr. Margaret-Ann Armour National Conference Grant application form fully completed. The application includes the following sections:

- Contact information
- A description of the event
- A clear description of the national scope of the proposed event
- Expected number of participants, number of women/girls, to be engaged
- A proposed budget that includes all expenses and sources of funding
- A description of what the participants will gain from the event
- A description of how you intend to share the knowledge gained
- A statement that the applicant has read, understood and complies with the information presented in the application submission.

Evaluation Process

Applications will be evaluated individually by the five NSERC Chairs. The decisions of the Chairs are final and are not subject to appeal.

Applications received after the event has taken place will not be considered. It is therefore important that the event under consideration should be planned for at least 8 weeks after the application intake period.

After the evaluation, an email message will be sent to all applicants informing them of the funding decision and reporting requirements in the event of a favourable decision.

Conferences that have not benefited from previous CWSE National Network funding will be prioritized.

Eligible Expenditures

- Registration fees, meeting materials, meeting expenses, meals for participants.
- Travel expenses for participants to travel to your event: Travellers are encouraged to use the most economical travel arrangements available and suitable to the travellers' needs. Applications quoting high fares due to lack of planning will not be considered favourably.
  - Transportation (airfare, train, bus, car)
  - Accommodations
  - Meals (if not included in the conference). If the maximum allocated for each meal is exceeded the fund will only cover the portion allocated.
